What Not to Miss

- > Sunday, 24 Dec - Sunday, 7 Jan: Winter Break
- > Monday, 8 Jan: Back to School (Term 2)

Dear Parents,

Welcome to the 15th edition of our 2023-2024 school year newsletter, and the last one for Term 1. We hope you enjoy this week's read!

AIA wishes its families and students a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Happy Holidays everyone!

Spotlight on Christmas Celebrations

Early Years students had their Christmas performance in class which was enjoyed by their families and friends. They also exchanged gifts from Secret Santa! PYP and MY students participated in Christmas carols, a movie and dish parties. Perfect way to end the term!

Parent-Teacher Conferences: Thursday, 21 December

AIA Learners exhibited confidence and great communication while celebrating their learning with their families. They proudly modeled many attributes of the Learner Profile.

AROUND THE CLASSROOMS

PRE-K

Unlocking young creativity!

PRE-K artists excelled in exploring diverse art centers inspired by Kandinsky's vibrant world. Each center, a unique pathway to unleash imagination and color.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOMS

ART

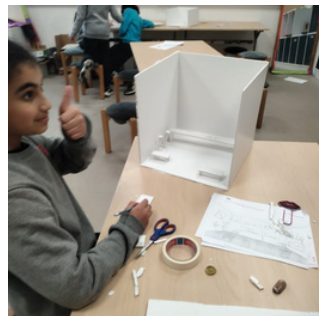

PRE-K learners created the last page of their book on textures during Art class: spiky objects.

Grade 4 students continued their exploration of printing techniques by experimenting with foam printing.

As part of their research unit "How The World Works", Grade 5 learners worked in groups to continue the creation of their mini-gallery, a 3D model representing their exhibition space.

BEYOND THE CLASSROOMS

LIBRARY

During December, the PYP library had a display for Christmas. Titles were added for the mentioned theme, which grabbed the students' attention. Photos shows Grade 4 students while reflecting on the upcoming vacation. Grade 4 students also shared their thoughts for their love for books.

CAS

Warmth in Winter

Generous donations gathered by Grade 10 and Grade 11 students for the Blanket Drive had been presented to the Leukemia Department at Smouha Specialized University Hospital. AIA students brought joy with thoughtful gifts and candies, offering comfort and companionship to uplift the spirits of patients.

PE

AIA students participated in friendly matches with Smart International School.
